Foreword

*This book is your mem'ry
To serve you when yours
Grows dim with the years
And vague with the hours.
The faces and places
You know so well now
You'll leave before long
And remember them? How?
For each laughing face
And each gay event
Here's an e'erlasting memoir
As a souvenir sent.
When you glance o'er these pages
Try and read 'tween the lines
There's a message there for you
From the depths of our minds.
"Though it's far from perfection,
It consumed num'rous hours
And won't you remember? . . .
It's YOUR book—not ours."*

Tribute to Leroy Hughes

By DAVID HOLLIS FRAZER

The recent and untimely passing of one of our highly respected and deeply loved students of Sam Houston High School prompts and warrants this humble tribute.

Leroy, as this noble young man was known to us, left behind him credit of his life as he had lived it within the short span of seventeen years. This alone should be consolation to us who are his friends, and to his nearer, dearer ones who mourn his loss.

The sorrow with which our entire student body has met the staunch realization of his unexpected departure to the portals of death, bears testimony to the continued lingering of his spirit within our midst. His team mates, realizing Leroy's ardent interest in the game of football, are doing their utmost to relive the spirit and "hard driving" that characterized the deceased, and his gallant leadership as he captained his team.

Our earthly regret only increases as we recount that Leroy was taken at a time when observers would have least predicted. He was physically an ideal specimen of youth and fast-developing manhood. Through careful guidance he had physically developed to be his teammates' ideal. Leroy's passing has left with his associates the remembrance of a student who had the ambition of a climber, and the will to attain his ambition. We do not magnify the tragedy of his death; but no tragedy is so intense that some gleam of consolation cannot be sensed by the victims of the tragic gloom. Thus to remember this fine specimen of ambitious youth is to remember him with deep respect and admiration, which after all can be the greatest goal for which a human life can be lived, no matter if that life were seventeen years in span or three score years and ten.

Thus, I pay Sam Houston High School's tribute to Leroy and say, "As a student and athlete we can expect and find no better." This tribute to his parents and to his memory, we pay.

SCHOOL

MR. E. E. OBERHOLTZER—

Honored and respected, Mr. Oberholtzer is nationally known as an educator of vision and discernment. His pleasant and long standing associations with the schools of Houston have endeared him to us all.

MR. W. J. MOYES—

This is small recognition indeed for a man so worthy as Mr. Moyes, who has been not only a splendid principal to Sam Houston, but who has been also a valued friend and advisor to the student body and faculty.

*Sincerely yours,
W. J. Moyes*

MR. G. A. LOESCHER—

Mr. Loescher, our assistant principal, who has rendered invaluable service to Sam Houston in more than one capacity, merits our sincerest praise and admiration.

To MISS VERNER BENTON, through whose energy and efforts the Black Battalion has won a nationwide reputation as a drill unit, the staff dedicates this section of the Cosmos. To her, the students of Sam Houston High School express not only their deep appreciation of her splendid leadership, but also their sincere hope for her continued success.

Verner Benton

REQUIEM

Taps for the Black Battalion. It will exist hereafter save as a thing of beauty may perpetuate itself in lasting inspiration.

Inscribe, then, among its achievements that it triumphed gloriously over a host of adversities. Out of the sweltering heat of a pipe-filled boiler room, and out of a sun-baked, rain-drenched, ungraded drill court—too small for a rehearsal of the entire organization—came a Battalion of international prominence, reflecting honor upon its school and city. Imitations have appeared in Houston, in numerous other American cities and in foreign climes, but the Black Battalion has remained the only movement of its kind.

Through its eight years the Black Battalion has been invested with a soul and with a hardy spirit to excel. It has sought to glorify young womanhood. It has held aloft the beauty of clean living, of healthy bodies and of pure minds. It has embodied a sense of personal pride, a charm and graciousness of manner, an efficiency in all undertaking, a love for the artistic and beautiful.

A fractional mention of its honors should include: A picture in the hall of fame of the Sousa Post, V. of F. W., at Detroit with other outstanding drum corps; performances under Sousa's baton, international radio broadcasts, theatre circuit engagements, a review before former Governor Ross Sterling and 10,000 spectators, a featured article in the world's largest musical magazine, Paramount and Fox news reel features, and numerous performances on programs of national interest. The Battalion has served loyally for charity and civic causes. It has been self sustaining and has made money each year to support other activities of its school.

My gratitude goes to those who have encouraged me in founding and developing the Battalion. My love remains with those splendid girls who have marched under its colors. As for my sacrifices, labors and heartaches, I pass over them. Repose enough for me will come in the hope that, although the Battalion dies, its soul will live on in the hearts of its veterans and friends.

Johnny Helton

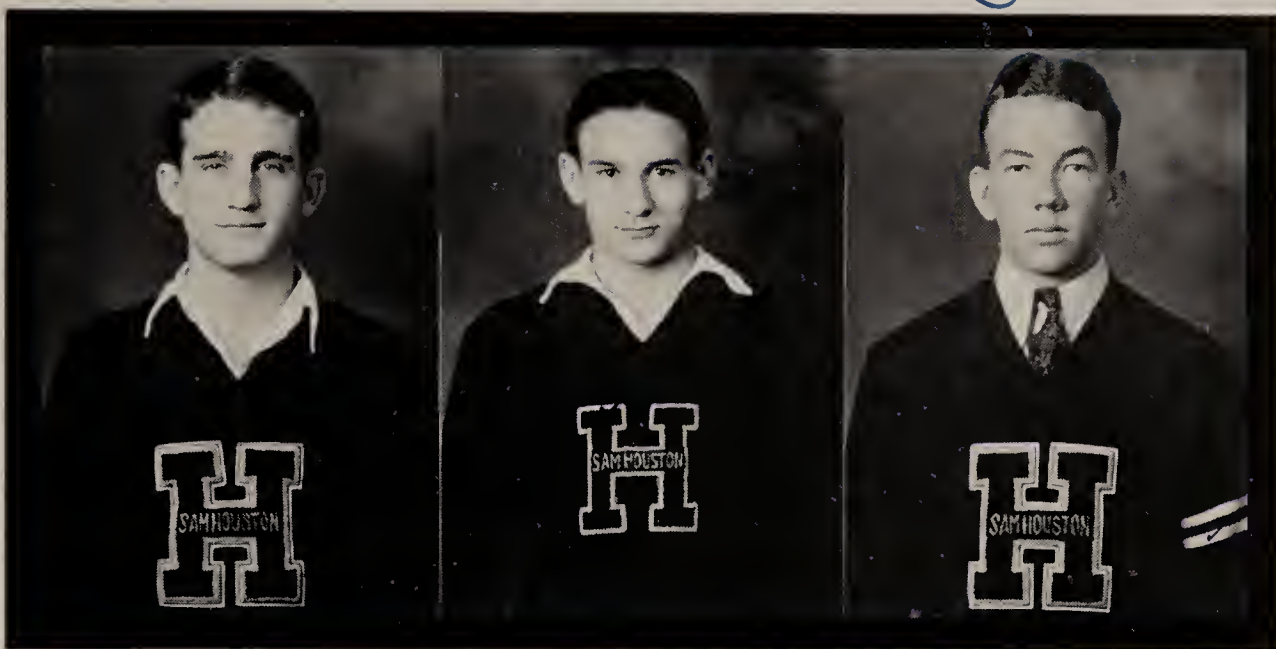

Co-captain Giamalva earned his second letter this year at end for the Tigers. He was easily the class of the ends playing for the senior high schools as was demonstrated by the fact that he was named on the all-city team. He was a fearless tackler and blocker and was rarely taken out of plays that were directed around his end. This was Charlie's last year on the Tiger team, and he will be sorely missed when the next football season rolls around.

To Coach Duggan, the teachers and alumnae of Sam Houston owe their sincere thanks for guiding the destinies of fine football teams. Always a man who takes an ardent interest in the athlete he coaches, Mr. Duggan has made himself one who will be remembered by each of these young men, not only as their coach but also as their friend and advisor.

While Coach Duggan is putting the Tiger team through their paces, Assistant Coach "Saeo" Hudgings is usually devoting his time to teaching the fundamentals of football to the "B" team—first year men and others who show talent but are not quite able to make the first team. Through Hudgings' guidance, many members of his "B" teams have later developed into star athletes.

Co-captain Johnny Helton proved that he was something of a football player during his two seasons as a regular on the Tiger team. As a junior, he was first-string guard and played a bang-up game of football. In his senior year, he exhibited his customary brand of fine playing, holding down the quarterback's position and calling signals most of the season.

*Chester Chonowski
Best Regards
Best wishes
Roy Stockton*

HAL WEIDEMEYER, Half

Hal's undying spirit was an inspiration to the whole team. Whether the Tigers were winning or losing, Hal was always fighting—and smiling.

CHESTER CHONOWSKI, Half

Chester's all-around ability is hard to beat anywhere. A courageous, hard fighter, Chester has been an invaluable asset to the Tigers for two years.

ROY STOCKTON, Half

Roy's kicking, passing and running ability is something to remember. This was his second year as a regular Tiger back.

Ted Wimberly

BILLY ROBB, Tackle

When Billy was in the game the opposing team was in for a rough time. Billy was a hard worker and gave everything he had to the game.

TED WIMBERLY, Center

Ted's untiring work at center was a feature that kept the Tigers in the thick of the race all of the time.

S. C. GRIZZLE, Half

S. C. was the smallest back-field man in the city and also one of the fastest. He returns to the Tigers next year.

Edward Carnes

Rosy Vallone

EDWARD CARNES, Center

Although he was only a sophomore, Ed showed up well in the games he played in. Much is expected of him in the next two years.

ROSY VALLONE, Guard

Rosy's all-around play at guard won him his second letter. He could open those holes on offense and stop any play directed at him.

JIMMIE TEFLOS, Full

Hitting the line for a needed yard or so was Jimmie's specialty, and he usually came through. His blocking was also excellent.

Fredy Gilmore Corwin Dodge

W. D. DUNMAN, End

W. D.'s pass snatching ability and good end play earned him his second letter on the Tiger team.

FRED GILMORE, End

Even the fact that he was beset by injuries did not prevent Freddie from showing that he was an all-around end.

CORWIN DODGE, Guard

Corwin earned his first letter by his steady, dependable playing this year. He is expected to prove to be one of Coach Duggan's best bets next year.

Jack Heard

HOWELL RAWLINGS, Guard

As a tackler and blocker, Howell had few peers among the high school guards. He will return to the Tigers next year.

ED SHELTON, End

Ed's ability to stop plays directed around his end and to block the opposing tackle made him a valuable man.

JACK HEARD, Tackle

Jack broke up nearly every play that was headed in his direction during the season, proving that he was a handy man to have around.

KERMIT BEAHAN, Tackle

Playing in his junior year, Kermit's blocking and tackling made the Tigers a tackle who was very dependable.

WALTER RECTOR, Manager

Walter was as able a manager as a team could want. He not only looked after the equipment of the football team but "doubled" in this capacity, being manager of the basketball team also.

FOOTBALL SUMMARY

The season of 1934 will go down in the annals of Sam Houston as one of the most successful ever experienced in the Tiger den. A squad of about thirty-five players, including six letter-men, reported to Coach Duggan to prepare for a schedule of games that was one of the hardest that a team from Sam Houston has ever faced. Out of this group a team emerged which proved to be a hard-fighting one.

The Tigers opened the season on September 21 against the St. Thomas Toms, taking them into camp by a 37-0 score. Nearly every member of the Tiger squad got into the fray and most of them showed to great advantage. It was evident after this game that Sam Houston had a formidable team which had to be reckoned with before the District 13 title was settled.

The following week the Tigers worked hard in preparation for Braekenridge High of San Antonio, intent upon getting revenge for the defeat handed to them by the Eagles last year. The Tigers were greatly outweighed and were up against a veteran team, but when the final whistle had blown the Eagles found themselves on the short end of a 26-0 score. The Tigers again proved that they had a running attack that was pointed toward many yards in gain and many touchdowns before the close of the season.

With these two wins under their belts the snarling Tigers set out for Corpus Christi the next week to engage the Corpus Christi High School Buccaneers. The Tigers did not play the brand of football which they were capable of playing, displayed a ragged defense that never got to clicking well, and they tasted defeat to the tune of 21-0. This was the first time that the Tigers' goal line had been crossed, and the defeat made them more determined to win the next week.

On October 13, North Dallas High School invaded Houston. The Tigers displayed the smooth attack that had carried them to victory in the first two games and swamped the Dallasites 20-0.

On October 19 the Tigers packed up and moved over to Beaumont to take on the Beaumont Royal Purple. The Tiger team traveled in a bus, but a special train carried several hundred rooters, including the famed Black Battalion, to Beaumont for the game. Many hundreds more followed in automobiles to give the Tigers the support which they so richly deserved. The Tigers quickly opened up on the Purple, and when the smoke of the Battle cleared away, Sam Houston had really made up for the defeat handed them by the Purple a year before. They won, 25-0.

Spurred on by these victories, the Tigers met Conroe as their first district opponents and swamped them 93-0. Before the first quarter had ended, it was evident that Conroe was really in for a bad afternoon even though every Tiger substitute present was being used, some of them in positions they had never before played.

The next week-end the Tigers met the Jeff Davis Panthers in what proved to be the deciding game in the District Race. It was raining before the game started and continued to rain all during the contest. The Tigers took an early lead by scoring in the first few minutes of play and then gave Davis four points on two safeties. At the half the score was 10-6 in the Panthers' favor. Sam Houston made a valiant effort to come back in the last half but did not succeed in making more than two points which were made when the Panthers gave them an intentional safety. The final score was 10-8 in favor of Davis.

Angered by this defeat, the next week the Tigers regained their winning stride and won over the San Jacinto Bears by a score of 12-6. The Bears started out quickly and scored within the first few minutes of play. The Tigers scored in the second quarter to make the score even, and then in the third period, pushed over another touchdown that made them a winning team again.

The Milby Buffaloes were the next to fall before the Tiger paw. After holding the Tigers scoreless in the first half, the Buffs weakened and as a result came out holding the zero of a 12-0 score.

On November 23 the Tigers played their last game by resuming their rivalry against the John Reagan Bulldogs. It was another one of those famous battles between two schools that would rather win over each other than win all their other games. The Tigers started out well by scoring in the first quarter. Reagan came back in the third to even things up, and then Sam Houston pushed over another touchdown to win the game 13-7.

Even though the Tigers did not win the district championship, the season of 1934 will be remembered as one in which a fighting Tiger team gave every one of its opponents a real battle.

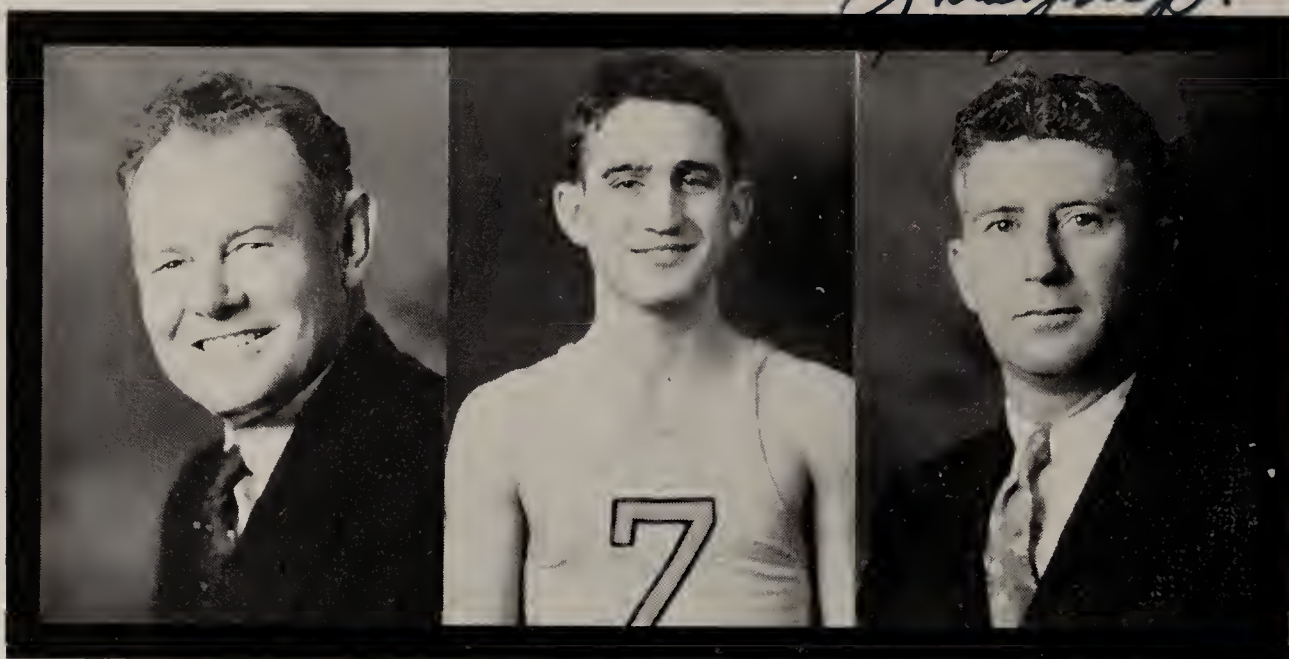

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Top row: Chester Chonowski, Billy Byrns, Hal Weidemeyer, George Munger, Ed Willy, Walter Rector.

January 4	Davis	20-30
January 9	San Jacinto	23-20
January 16	Milby	16-29
January 23	Reagan	34-19
January 30	San Jacinto	23-31
February 8	Milby	30-15
February 15	Reagan	32-26
February 19	Davis	26-34

COACH DUGGAN

Coach Duggan has proved that he is a very able basketball coach also, since he has started coaching at Sam Houston. Although his teams have not always finished on top, they have been noted for the fine fighting spirit that Duggan has instilled into them. When given the material to work with and develop, there is not an abler coach than Ed Duggan to be found anywhere.

CAPTAIN HAL WEIDEMEYER

To "Squat-lo" Weidemeyer must go credit for being one of the peppiest players ever to play for the Tigers. Hal shone especially in his guarding of the opposing team's sharpshooters and rarely failed to turn in an excellent job. He was always fighting whether the Tigers were winning or losing, and showed that he was as able a leader as a team could have. Hal is only a junior and will be back with the Tigers next year.

ASSISTANT COACH HUDGINGS

"Saco" is also an able assistant to Coach Duggan during the basketball season. When needed, he is ready to take charge of the team. He devotes much of his time to the coaching of the "B" team, which is generally made up of first year men and others who must learn the fundamentals of the game. Through his team, Hudgings furnishes opposition for the Tiger team in scrimmage sessions.

BILLY BYRNS, Center

Billy won his second letter at center this year for the Tigers. Billy is tall and angular and was able to take the ball off the backboard many a time.

ED WILLY, Forward

Ed won his first letter by his all-around forward play. On the man for man defense, Ed is unexcelled in his ability to guard his man.

CHARLIE GIAMALVA, Guard

Charlie's steady able play was a feature of the Tiger attack. His keen eye for the basket brought the Tigers many points. This was his second letter and his last year on the team.

GEORGE MUNGER, Forward

George's accuracy in hitting the basket gave the Tigers many a badly needed point. This was his first basketball letter and last year on the team.

CHESTER CHONOWSKI, Guard

Chester won his second letter in basketball this year, being the only reserve on the team to letter. Always a hard fighter, he is noted for his ability to take the ball away from his opponents.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

When basketball practice was opened by Coach Duggan, a squad of about thirty boys reported to him. Included in this group were only two letter-men, the rest being boys who were ready and willing to learn basketball. After about two weeks of intensive practice the Tigers opened up and successfully felled several out-of-town quints before starting their regular play. Even though the team came through these games easily Duggan drilled the boys harder than ever in preparation for the first game.

The Tigers opened the championship race against Jeff Davis at the San Jacinto "gym." After the Tigers had held them to a one-point lead in the first half, Davis turned on the steam and increased the margin of their lead until the Tigers were unable to overcome it, and as a result the Tigers lost their first game against city competition. The final score was 30-20.

The next game was with the San Jacinto Bears. After the Bears had assumed a first half lead, the Tigers rallied in the last half and beat them to the tune of 23-20 for their first city win.

The next game the Tiger quintet dropped to Milby by the score of 29-16. It seemed as though the Tigers could not get to functioning properly.

The following game, which was with John Reagan, ended the first half of the season for the Tigers. With a fast passing attack, the Tigers hit the basket time and again, and as a result redeemed themselves for the loss in the preceding game. The final score was 34-19.

Starting the second round of play, the Tiger quintet met the San Jacinto Bears. The Tigers were unable to get started while the Bears were hitting the basket regularly. When the final whistle had blown, the Tigers were on the short side of a 31-23 score.

Next came Milby. Remembering the defeat that the Buffs had handed to them in the first half of the season, the Tigers really got to working in fine style and trounced them by a 30-15 score. The Tigers showed plenty of class in this game.

Sam Houston dropped the next game to Reagan in a rough and tumble affair that was marred by too many personal fouls. The Tigers gave the Bulldogs a real battle. It was not until later in the fourth quarter that Reagan gathered the winning margin of points after the lead had changed hands several times.

The Tigers closed their season by losing again to the Jeff Davis Panthers. The Tigers fought to avenge the defeat that the Panthers had previously handed them but to no avail. The final score was 34-26.

The Tigers finished fifth in the city race, winning three and losing five games.

The Au Courant Literary Society was organized in 1933 with Miss Adele Waggaman as sponsor. This society was formerly the "Old Yazee Club" which was organized at the Y.W.C.A. by student members.

This year, the society has enjoyed various social activities. At the beginning of the term, a luncheon and a theatre party were given by the members in honor of those who had been pledged to membership. Mrs. Miner complimented the members with a Chinese tea at her home where true Chinese atmosphere was enjoyed. A party was given at the home of Martha Stewart for members and their guests. As the club has done each year previously, a tea was given in honor of the senior members.

Each program that the society had this year has been on the topic "Habits and People of Foreign Nations." Members of the club and teachers of Sam Houston have spoken on this subject. Mary Lou O'Kelly opened the series with a talk on "South America." Mrs. Miner speaking on "China" continued the talks. As she spoke, she exhibited articles and clothing that she had brought with her when she returned from there. As Mrs. Hogan talked on "Hawaii," she illustrated her points with photographs that had been taken while she was there. Miss Hubbard concluded the series with a talk on "France."

The captain of the 1934-35 Debate Squad was Sam Kaminsky. Those composing the Debate Teams were as follows: Marcelle Moran and Helen Pasternak, girls; Edd Miller and Louis Crosson, boys. Tournaments at San Antonio, Dallas, and Yoakum were entered by the debate teams. Very favorable showing was made at all three. Several other out-of-town trips were made, and many out-of-town schools visited Sam Houston to engage in practice debates.

Both debate teams won second place in City Interscholastic Meet. Hugh Gibson, boy extemporaneous speaker, placed second; Blanche Kraus, girl extemporaneous speaker, placed third; Miriam Byal, girl declaimer, placed third; Sam Kaminsky was boy declaimer.

D. Hollis Frazer was debate coach previous to O. Bertram Horne, present coach.

EDITOR'S NOTE

By way of explanation as to how the favorites of this section were chosen:

The Most Popular Boy and Girl were elected by the senior class from a list of nominees named by the Senior Cabinet. The Most Representative Boy and Girl were elected by the faculty from a list of candidates also nominated by the Cabinet.

The beauties in this section were selected entirely from pictures sent in by any girl desiring to enter the contest, and they were judged by Mr. James Chillman, the director of the Art Museum. One was selected from the entire group of pictures as Sam Houston's most beautiful girl. Then from each class group of pictures a class beauty was chosen.

TALK OF THE TONGUE

Hey diddle diddle—Surely we never thought of our own Harriet Gregory as Bo Peep, grown slightly, and not altogether lacking sophistication, but it looks as if that Bo Peep plan of “Leave ’em alone and they’ll come home” is being so effectively put into practice around S. H. that all the lost sheep are knocking each other down in the rush!

Don’t know whether Gaynelle Furley bakes cherry pie or not, but somehow or other that little “Sonny” Allbritton reminds us of dear ole’ “Billee Boy.” Remember?

And here’s a good one—Mary, Mary (quite contrary) might well be changed to “Marion, Marion,” because Miss Oberholtz IS quite contrary with her dazzling smiles. In fact, we put her next to the Queen of Hearts. Who? Why, Augusta Hardin, of course! “Georgey Porgey, Puddin’ Pie,” who kissed the girls (but they didn’t cry) goes under another name at Sam Houston. Need we say—Harry Kennedy?

We don’t know about Peter the Pumpkin eater, but one thing is sure, Marcelle Moran is the gal no one can keep! No sir, this lil’ gal is independent. About as independent as the Three Wise Men of Gotham, none other than Chetty, Freddy, and Teddy (Chonowski, Gilmore, and Wimberly, respectively). These inseparables haven’t put to sea in a bowl yet, but some of their capers nearly measure up.

Really, all the S. H. “gentlemen” remind one of the self-same, well known character. That’s an easy one—“Simple Simon met a pieman on his way to school; said Simple Simon to the pieman, are there any cool?—Said the pieman to Simple Simon, How many?—But Simple Simon, tired of rhymin’, said—Quick, I’m late, give me all you’ve got . . .!” A few specific examples you ask?—Fur’ instance, Jack Heard, the mighty, pretty Joe Taylor and, naturally, J. T. Faulkner, who down pies like an ant goes after sugar.

—That Jack who couldn’t work fast enough for Margery Daw couldn’t possibly be Jack Hunter. Any Margery Daw around here wouldn’t pay a penny a day—she’d let him off with a bonus after the first date.

One more, children, and then the tongue takes a holiday while the sandman closes your sleepy eyes. It’s our old friend, the little girl with a curl in the middle of her forehead (only she went modern on us and chopped it off)—True to the old tale, when Katherine Smith is good she’s very, very good, but when she’s bad—well ask Charlie Myers—Anyway, she’s not horrid!

That’ll be all for tonight, dears. Close your eyes and dream of all the angels in the wide blue world (like Virginia Bishop and Doris Twitchell). But come down to earth again before the

TONGUE TALKS AGAIN.

REVISED NURSERY RHYMES

Hi diddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon—
Buttermilk

Simple Simon met a pieman going to the fair,
Said Simple Simon to the pieman,
Hello!

There was a little girl, who had a little curl
Right in the middle of her forehead.
When she was good, she was very, very good,
But when she was bad,
She was better!

Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet,
Eating of curds and whey.
Along came a spider, and said,
Move over!

This little pig went to market,
This pig went to see the farmer in the dell,
This little pig went to heaven,
And this little pig went to heaven, too!

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall,
And all the king's horses,
And all the king's men,
Had egg-nog!

Trot trot to Boston
To buy a loaf of bread,
Trot trot home again.

Use Blue-Hawk for corns.
(It never fails!) (Paid advertisement)

Mary, Mary, quite contrary,
How does your garden grow?
Silver bells and cockle shells,
And the rest haven't come up yet.

Dickery, Dickery, Dock;
Two mice ran up the clock,
The clock struck one
(P.S.—The other one got away!)

The girl who,
Is early to bed and early to rise,
Is really a wallflower,
In disguise!

Where are you going my pretty maid
With your rosy cheeks and your golden hair?—
“Fresh guy!” she said.

Little Jack Nory
Told me a story,
Shame on Jackie!

'Twas the night before Xmas,
And all through the joint,
Not a creature was stirring,
And that's all I loint!

Part One

I SPURNETH TEMPTATION

I've got an invitation to a dancee
But I don't think I'll go
I'll be sorry I know
I'm afraid I might flunk
And I sure would be sunk
If I didn't pass.

I've got an invitation to a dancee
It's the school's big affair
All the kids will be there
What should I do,
Sit at home and be blue,
Or flunk all my tests?

I don't want to be a sissy
If I'm not there they'll call me a prude,
But maybe if I keep up my reputation
My graduation dream will be stewed!

I've got an invitation to a dancee
I could trust it to fate
But it might be too late
Oh, I guess it's the bunk
To care if I flunk
But ten years is a mighty long time.

Part Two

VICTORY IS MINE!

I believe in miracles
Strange as that may be
I never passed a test before
I'll never even try no more
I've passed! I'm free!
Hope can work a miracle
Right before your eyes
Alas, I thought I'd eram again
And then a brilliant idea came
To learn it! Surprise!
Some magieal power suggested
A new, untried course
In one magieal hour, I learned of this unheard souree!

I believe in miracles
It worked, and so you see
It really is a wondrous thing
Let's laugh and dancee and shout and sing,
We're passed! We're free!
(P.S. My brethern, (and sistren)
Let not the similarity of these hems to a couple of songs (named "An invitation to a dancee" and "I believe in Miraeles") deter your eonseience from the joyful singing of them in sincere religious unity. Join in and let not your hearts be sad!

Amen

ROGUES GALLERY

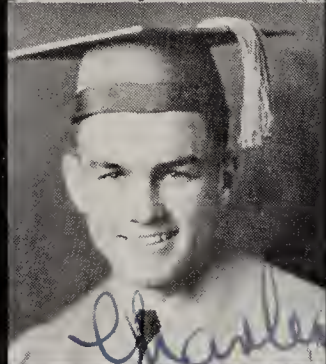

JOHN HELTON . . . escaped from National Asylum
 "Red, The Rogue" (alias John Helton)
 Went crazy from conceit
 Not 'cause he was student president
 But because of his big feet.

BARBARA MYERS Wanted for murder
 "Babs" is just a killer
 She's fatal, believe it or not
 She breaks their hearts, then leaves 'em
 That's worse than being shot!

DELIGHT PARKS Wanted for murder
 And here's another murderess
 Though she looks OK, 'tis sure
 She can break (or make a man)
 Beware of her allure!

CHARLES MYERS Protects criminals
 Mike Maloney (alias Charles Myers)
 Protects the "woman in red"
 (She's another wicked woman, my dear)
 "But what-a-one!" so Mike says!

MARY HELEN BRYAN Wanted for thievery
 This little one who looks so sweet
 Is really full of harm
 She's stolen the nation's beauty, you can see
 By the endless realms of her charm.

MARY SUE BATES Notorious Thief
 And here's the biggest thief of them all
 Her crimes left most of us lame
 She's stolen the wisdom of all we poor fools
 'Tis a crime to own such a brain.

SOSSASSITY

Stupendous! Splendiferous! Magnificent! Colossal!—What? Why the '35 Black Battalion Dance held this spring at the Rice Terrace, of course. Everyone was there, my dears—that is, everyone who is anyone. Carrying out the Spanish scheme, those lads in the McCoy-Scott (combined) orchestras dolled up in “mustachios” and gave the gals a treat. What an evening! What a life! Gorgeous gowns and gals—gaiety galore—gala gathering! Stags Beahan, Charlie Richards, Jimmie Teflos, Winfrey Lewis—and the rest of the shieks are giving the beauties the rush. We see Inez Murph, Eloise Thompson, Noel Brown, and Mildred Howland retouching in the dressing room and over yonder are Jean Ray, James Alan Shepherd, and that cute little Roberta Arrant resting up from the rush. San Jacinto, Reagan, Rice Institute, and Houston U. are all well represented. Ex-class president, Holmes, and ex-beauty (still beautiful) Peterson are still showing up. We dance till two and then go home, tired but happy, to rest up for the coming events. Congratulations, B. B.! It was a ripping success!

And so was the Elaphian Dance honoring the Graduating Football lettermen. Here Sam Houston went elite with a program dance at the Junior League. Everyone had a good time—from the faculty on down. The Football boys drank punch, received favors, made speeches, and . . . drank more punch. Everyone, even if he didn't dance, had a nice time watching Mr. Spampinato. Again the gals were out in full bloom. President Thelma Kirby presided over the brief interlude—program, introducing the football heroes to the mike. Billy Robb blushes . . . Ed Murr grins . . . Ed Shelton sighs and looks dreamy . . . Billy Brown “Hidee Do Gals” . . . and Ted Wimberly tops it all off with a characterization of ex-debate coach Frazer—“Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking . . .”. Fun, foolishness, and frivolity ran riot, yet, sho 'nuff, we lived up to our dignified goal. No stags—no crashers—no misplaced brightness. It was really a swell party and the Elaphians deserve a big hand.

But, hold on here—we can't, simply can't sign off without mentioning the annual Houston University reception. Once again Sam Houston runs off with the beauty title (as we all expected), being well represented by Irish Erin Finnegan, the lass of the laughin' eyes. That makes seven years in succession we've copped the title. Well, no wonder, look at all this beauty being wasted around these 'yar portals. Yes sir, the Black and Gold really has a monopoly of the high school feminine charm.

And such a program we do have to look forward to. Four or five big dances, open houses, and parties galore, and teas by the hundreds—all besides the Senior dance, picnic, and banquet. Even Ye Old Sam Houston Speakers are gonna' show off with a bigger banquet than ever at LeBlanc's. Again we say, What a life! What a future! Don't wear yourselves out, children, 'cause we have a rollicking good time before us . . . Sosassity shines!

The Cosmos staff is truly grateful for the many services so willingly rendered by friends who wished to see our annual a success. To Miss Helen Weinberg and Miss Drew Black Staggs, the sponsors of the Cosmos, we pay sincere thanks for their invaluable aid and their willing advice. If it were not for their untiring efforts, Sam Houston would not now be able to claim an annual of High School memories.

Mrs. Woodruff has very ably assisted in the Art Department of the Cosmos and deserves commendation for her much needed service. Miss Duvernoy also merits our gratitude for her compliance in giving us information about the graduates and official lists of them.

Mr. Seawright was very agreeable in furnishing us envelopes and other material. And Mr. Snyder was as usual so very nice about furnishing caps and gowns for the Senior pictures.

Mr. Sherman, as always, proved to be an invaluable aid in cutting and mounting the pictures and served as the invariable "last minute man" in putting out the book.

Mr. Moyes, the principal of Sam Houston, has given us his unrivaled cooperation for which we are duly grateful. Let us also give praise to Mrs. MacDougal, who was very helpful in running off bulletins for us.

Without this friendly cooperation, the 1935 Cosmos could never be what it is.

SAM HOUSTON HIGH STUDENTS

This has been a happy year, one filled with real pleasure and accomplishments. I wish to congratulate you.

And, certainly, I wish to thank you for the many courtesies shown me, and for the business which you have given me.

The privilege of making the Commencement Invitations and Rings for the Class of 1935 is greatly appreciated, and we hope for the privilege of manufacturing for future classes of Sam Houston.

Contratulations! And,

Thank You

What After High School?

Let Massey introduce you to an office position in keeping with your educational background. We do not promise to make of you a business executive; but we will train you for, and place you in, a starting position where your talents and education will open to you opportunities without limit.

We are receiving constantly more calls from employers for Massey graduates than we have available to fill the very desirable office positions open to them.

We invite your investigation of our record in starting Sam Houston graduates on the road to success.
